About This Game

Earth is doomed and our only hope is getting a survivable habitat up in space using whatever resources are scattered in orbit. You're left with debris, junk, and other oddities to use for humanity's survival. Build, upgrade, and control the Habitats that you create as you see fit. The main Campaign will take you through narrative-driven missions while Sandbox mode will give you a blank slate and pure creative control to build and explore at your leisure.

Leading your team of engineers, you will have to build and fly your space stations in a zero gravity setting. Learn to scavenge and thrive with whatever you find floating around in space, or go on the hunt to take what you need from other factions trying to survive. In the event of a threat, get creative and turn your space stations into deadly weapons using pieces of debris you pick up such as rockets, lasers and particle accelerators, to fight with. Crisis is guaranteed; your only chance of survival is to get creative and to be decisive in the face of disaster.

Wow! This title knocked it out of the park! I'm not suprised by a lot of the pop culture references, and 4th wall breaking that had happened. it really is well worth the 112-day wait to buy it.. really cool and it's way cooler with drawn below hint drawn below only makes sence if you beat draw a stickman epic 2. Very Simple game, but good mechanics, and room for improvement, but hey, it's free! I wish the stick wouldn't disappear into the ice. All in all, it's a fun, quick game. Hopefully there will be future updates!. Buy it. Definitely worth your dollar. (or, in my case, totally worth my eighty-four cents.) Only issue I've had with it so far is that the bosses are reaaaaaally hard to beat. Or I just suck at these kind of games. Yeah, it's probably that.. This is a good game, when you buy it on sale.. A really nice update for the original Swarmriders, which is free. It doesn't bring much to the table, but it's fun and cheap\u00ad.. This is quite fun so far. I'm only on the 4th level but just wanted to say it's pretty good for 67 pence :)

A bit like the original Guantlet and Hammerwatch.

With some more work given to the game it could be a really nice casual game. Awesome sequel to an already great game. Nice music, cute graphics, funny dialogue, a lot of secrets to find, and very replayable. Great if you want something to just pick up and play.

In a world of special editions, season passes, and day 1 DLCs, a work of love like this is a breath of fresh air. Definitely worth the three dollars.

FrallanXRemedy is my OTP.

Battle Royale games suck

'Nuff said. Wonderful diversion for those who love puzzle games! I wish that there was something like this in real life because it is really very enjoyable for me to play. A really creative game. It makes me want to have those wooden models be made in real life. Pick this game up when you can!. Well actually this is a space shooter. So you shoot things.. in space but....

I did a fews mission, and unpleasant things bumped into my head...

you are some guy that fly around the solar system planet.. and all of them have an asteroid belt around it....

- Graphics.

They are nice, because space is awesome.. that's the strong point of the game, and actually graphics doesn't do everything

- Gameplay

Its just correct.. and by correct i really mean "only correct"

You won't have any troubles with the control in the game, they will come instantly

- music √ sound

Well... the music let's say.. i only did fews mission and.. i dropped because of this, this soundtrack is....

i'm not going to say. bad that's wrong... no wait... its bad.. The same song for like 3-4 mission.... and the song is repetitive as hell..

Hope this game have more than 1 mission music..

More than that it doesn't fit at all with this type of game..

Voice well, turn it off... seriously.. turn the voice off !

As for the sound effect. pew pew pew.

- Overall

I'm not going to thumbs up this game because its just a game that everyone will forget in 2 days. I'm not going to thumbs down either because its not that bad .. there's no horizontal thumbs..... and the price is very decent.

But this game have something wrong ... generally shooters (ex gradius , thunderforce ect) are repetitive.. but in a good way. this game seem repetitive in the bad way... So this sequel to Elisa the Innkeeper has a new protagonist showing up to try and woo Elisa. Only this time, it is a playboy cad who simply wants to screw anything female and mess anything up... However, if you make the right choices, he... may have a change of heart...

There are five girls in the game, but the endings (at least the ones that trigger the achievements) leave only three as choices, one ending having two, the other... being a possible eventual love thing. Along the way, if you treat them right, you can end up having a bit of "fun" with one or two others...

Now, there is a free patch to add some content. Thing is, it actually is a different version, that you can switch back and forth between on the front page. And only the Steam version unlocks the achievements.. This is an awesome game, inspired me to work on a jump map for tf2 :)

which isnt close to being done yet.

Also <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2aMxO9J4nRQ>. This is a gorgeous little game which really felt like being dropped into the world of a fantasy movie. If you have a soft spot for films like Labyrinth, Neverending Story, or Mirrormask then this feels really special. If you have played Form then the puzzles are going to feel very familiar except that the interactions are in the environment instead of on boxes. The biggest problem I had is that, even accepting the length of the game, the ending still feels really abrupt compared to the rest of it.. I bought this loco for 9 USD on sale, and I was quite surprised. A few people I had talked to said this model was outdated, poor sounds ,etc, but for some reason, I found myself thoroughly enjoying it! I like the variety of Liveries available in this pack, my favorites being the NSE "Toothpaste" and the "Dutch" Engineering. I also LOVE the sounds of those classic Sulzer engines thumping away. The one thing I found with the locomotive that I did NOT like, was that as soon as you put a few cars on the rear, it bogs the engine WAY down. I was running a stopping service on the Great Western Mainline, with 5 coaches, and could only get upto 60 in a distance of 2 miles.

Overall, I would definitely recommend this locomotive for purchase, though I can't say as though I would buy it for full price, just as it IS a little outdated. Final rating= 8.5/10

Also, if you want to take this locomotive to the next level, you should buy the Armstrong Powerhouse Class 33 Sound Pack. This completely revamps the sound set, and makes the 33 among the best-sounding in game!. Generally, in rhythm-based games that have so many of their mechanics based around detecting the beat of a song, you actually want the beat-detection to detect the ever-important beat. When it fails to do this for virtually your entire library - detecting beats that don't exist, consistently skipping beats in a chugging song that has an unchanging beat - and the mechanics of the game don't just reward your attentiveness to the beat but actively punishes you for not keeping with the game's seemingly arbitrary measure of where the beat of your song actually is, then it makes the game...

...basically unplayable.. If you are looking for a fun game to test your brain and pass the time; this is it. If your looking for a game to challenge you to your limits; look no further! Blockwick 2 is a perfect blend of challenge and fun and allows players to decide for themselves how difficult the game is. If you just want to have fun and pass the time a little bit you can just find the moon pearls and solve the puzzles. I enjoyed just listening to the music and admiring the artwork while I solved the puzzles. There is also another way to play the game; now I may just be really bad at puzzle games, but I found this way to be very difficult. If you are a huge fan of puzzle games or are a completionist and want a real challenge, try illuminating all of the puzzles. By not only placing the blocks next to each other, but also lighting up the symbols on the floor you essentially 100% the level. The game is very rewarding when you finally beat a level, and seeing the cleared, illuminated chapter screens is a very satisfying sight. The duality of this game; being a fun and casual puzzle game, and being a great challenge by going for 100% completion makes it perfect for anyone to enjoy! 9.5/10
