In Telugu cinema, there have been a plethora of films that have been simultaneously entertaining and educational. So many new filmmakers have come forward with a rage for making a social film which resonates with the masses and brings about a change in consciousness. The latest of such films is called srimanthudu telugu full movie download hd. It's the story of how two friends who had drifted away from their childhood friendship found each other again as they came to terms with what life is made of and how to live it. It's an entertaining film that has food for thought as well as entertainment value, but at the end it will leave you wondering whether life can ever regain its innocence. Vikramaditya Motwane takes a bold step out from the usual commercial formula of films which churn money with high star value. He presents a film that is not only entertaining, but also makes you think. The film's basic message is about how society has managed to pervert the very soul of man and it needs to be challenged. It's a story about friendship, but more importantly is a story about the corruption of human nature and what we need to do to correct it. This film starts off on a small note with two friends Aayush (Sunny Deol) and Siddharth (Aditya Pancholi) who have been close since they were children. They are also the most popular schoolmates who everyone adores. Life takes a turn for Aayush when his elder brother's girlfriend mysteriously disappears. This causes him to drift away from his friend Siddharth. Aayush becomes a model, building himself up to be something which Siddharth is jealous of with his success in modelling. Life takes another turn for the two when Siddharth's girlfriend is kidnapped and they are blamed for it by their friends with whom they have parted ways after being in high school so long ago. Aayush and Siddharth become best friends again as they try to clear their names from the accusations. Aayush then decides to plead that he is not involved in any terrorist activities claiming that there was no proof that he did it. However, Siddharth makes him realize that one cannot choose their circumstances and circumstances will always be there to deal with. Even though the film ultimately has Aayush (Sunny Deol) win, you get to see how he grows up throughout the film by making him realize what life is all about it teaches the viewer about life. The story of this film goes like "How to make a big man out of a small man". The director Vikramaditya Motwane has succeeded in portraying a film with such a social message in such a light-hearted way that everyone will be able to relate to the film and understand the message being conveyed. The film is full of comedy and bolds comedy sequences which shows how colorful life can be. The lead actors Sunny Deol and Aditya Pancholi did a fine job in capturing the characters of Aayush and Siddharth respectively. The movie also features Ameesha Patel, Bobby Deol, Kay Kay Menon, Rajpal Yadav, Sayaji Shinde, Jimmy Sheirgill and Praveen Malhotra.
